

Mounted rice-bowl

Origin date	18th century 19th century
Origin place	Japan, France
Material	porcelain, bronze
Technique	underglaze cobalt painting, painted in colours over the glaze, gilded, cast
Sizes	magasság: 8,2 cm szájátmérő: 11,7 cm talpátmérő: 7,0 cm
Inventory No.	61.564.1

Description

Ovoid body on a low cylindrical foot, flaring outwards at the mouth. The exterior is painted in iron red, cobalt blue and gold with branches of flowering cherry. Around the foot is a later European openwork ormolu mount with a lace-like edge. Two curved bronze handles, each incorporating a female herm, are attached to the foot and rise to the rim.

