

Fragment of a statue of a female saint (presumably Mary of Sorrows)

Perhaps fragments from a former Crucifixion scene

Artist	Workshop in Szepes County (follower of Pál Lőcsei)
Origin date	around 1500
Material	linden
Technique	aranyozott
Sizes	magasság: 50 cm szélesség: 24 cm mélység: 10 cm
Inventory No.	56.843

Description

50 x 24 x 10 cm

This sawed fragment of a wooden statue of a female saint, presumably Mary of Sorrows, seen from the knees up is the companion to the similarly truncated depiction of St. John the Evangelist (56.846).

Proveniencia

Ipolyi collection. '185. Mary depicted from the knees up (cut). High relief made of wood, worn gilding. Early 16th c.' (Lakatos-Balla 279)

Bibliográfia

- Lakatos-Balla Attila: Ipolyi Arnold püspök hagyatéka Nagyváradon. Miscellanea Historica Varadinensia III. Nagyvárad 2012 279
- Radocsay D.: A középkori Magyarország faszobrai, Budapest, 1967, 174.
- Magyarország műemléki topográfiája I. Esztergom 1. Esztergom műemlékei (összeállította: Genthon István; Budapest 1948), 151.

Related works

56.846 Fragment of a statue of a male saint (presumably St. John the Evangelist) - Perhaps fragments from a former Crucifixion scene

